

Lieutenant Frederick R. Harford.

Lieutenant Frederick Reginald Harford, of the 1st Scots Guards, who while cycling to his quarters at Aldershot collided with a motor at Bagshot and was badly injured, served with the Militia in the South African War, and has the Queen's medal with five clasps. He joined the Scots Guards just before the peace. He is the heir of a former officer of the Scots Guards (then Scots Fusilier Guards), Colonel F. H. Harford, whose seat is Down Place, Windsor. The hurt Lieutenant's mother is the youngest daughter of the late Hon. Laurence Parsons, third son of the second Earl of Rosse. Colonel Harford's father also served in the Scots Fusilier Guards.
